Translation: Oooh mam' (Oh mother), uwinja (If you can hear me), Koth biro (The rain is coming), Keluru dhok e dala (Bring the cattle home).

Kothbiro is a Kenyan folk song in the Luo language, The lyrics tell us about the beauty of life and the tranquility of nature. The song's title, Kothbiro, means "rain is coming", which is seen as a blessing in many African cultures. The lyrics also speak about the beauty of nature and the importance of respecting it.
